DATA PROTECTION ACT

We will use the information you give us on this application form and any supporting documentation you have provided during assessment of your application and the life of any grant we award you in order to administer and analyse grants and for our own research.

We may give copies of the information provided to individuals and organisations we consult when assessing applications, when monitoring grants and evaluating the way of funding programmes work and the effect they have. These organisations may include accountants, external evaluators and other organisations or groups involved in delivering the project. We may also share information with other organisations providing matched funding and other organisations and individuals with a legitimate interest in the Midland Legal Support Trust applications and grants, for the prevention and detection of fraud and in order to comply with any legal or regulatory requirement or obligation.

We might use the data you provide for our own research. We recognise the need to maintain the confidentiality of vulnerable groups and their details will not be made public in any way, except as required by law.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 may give members of the public the right to request any information we hold. This includes information received from third parties, such as (although not limited to) grant applications, contractors and people making a complaint.

If information is requested under the Freedom of Information Act we will release it, subject to any exemptions that might apply, although we may consult with you first. If you think that information you are supplying may be exempt from the requirements under the Freedom of Information Act, you should let us know when you apply for a grant.

DECLARATION

We will take your signature on this form as confirmation that you understand our obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and that you accept we will not be liable for any loss or damage to you pursuant to our fulfilment of our obligations under the relevant law.
